

Name: _____

One Hundred Dollars

Imagine you woke up one morning and found $100 under your pillow from the tooth fairy. Write about what you did with the money.

What did you buy for yourself with the money?

Remember, this is a make-believe story. You can make up any thing you want.

What did you buy for someone else?

What happened when you woke up?

How did you feel?

How did you try to help people with it?

List anything else you did with your $100.

Now it's time to write the first sentence. The first sentence of a paragraph is very important. It tells what the rest of the paragraph is about. Write a sentence or two using your answers to the questions in the center box. Remember to write about finding the money.

Name: _____

One Hundred Dollars

Now copy the first sentence (or two) from the previous page. Use the rest of your answers to write more sentences.

Handwriting practice lines consisting of multiple sets of three horizontal lines (top solid, middle dashed, bottom solid) for copying and writing sentences.

Congratulations. You just wrote a complete paragraph. Now, edit your story and rewrite it on the next page. You may also draw a picture to go with it.

The figure shows two horizontal bars. The top bar is labeled 'Yes' and the bottom bar is labeled 'No'. Both bars are approximately 80% full, indicating that about 80% of respondents answered 'Yes' and 20% answered 'No'.

Diagram illustrating the distribution of responses for the question: "Do you think that the government should do more to help people who are having trouble finding a job?"

Response	Number of people
No	10
Yes	5

